

As a current and prior resident of small communities (Elk Grove, Cupertino) which can't afford their own Christian Music station, we value KLOVE's low-cost, high-impact Christian programming. Most radio seems dominated by mainstream markets, and retransmitted stations like K-LOVE allows relatively niche-markets like ours to be served cost-effectively. We'd be a poorer community without them. Thank you.